VOLUNTEERING

[02/2024] Tehran

Persian Game Jammers

Persian Game Jammers (PGJ) is a dynamic, volunteer-driven community uniting game developers, designers, and enthusiasts from Iran and internationally. The organization promotes collaboration, creativity, and growth in the game development sector through the organization of game jams, technical workshops, industry events, and knowledge-sharing initiatives.

As an active volunteer, I contribute by coordinating and supporting both online and in-person events, providing technical assistance within the Discord server, assisting in the creation of YouTube content, and participating in various supportive community activities.
